

School Bells to Ring Soon

Enrolled at New High School

The new Lady of the Gulf Parish school, with construction completed, has to date 500 of its 500 capacity. Enrolling to register may begin Monday through Friday, 8 a. m. to 5 p. m., at the new school, 1001 South Beach.

A dedication will not be held until mid-October, according to Rev. Msgr. Martin. The pastor, who said a more complete schedule would be available later, will begin, however, on Monday, Aug. 15. The staff is as yet unappointed, but five Sisters of the Holy Family and several lay teachers have been appointed.

The new school, which will have facilities for grades one through six, will also house a cafeteria. The school will be operated on a year-round basis.

NEW PUBLIC SCHOOL - Completing plans for the opening of the new North Bay Elementary School of the Municipal separate school district are, seated, Superintendent J. D. McCullough and E. G. Harriel, elementary principal. An open house is set for Saturday at North Bay and public schools open Aug. 26.

Enrollment Due to Hit Record High

A record enrollment of more than 1,600 pupils is anticipated during the 1960-61 session in the Bay St. Louis Separate Municipal School system, according to Superintendent J. D. McCullough.

The bulk of the enrollment, about 500, will be handled at the new North Bay Elementary School which will be unveiled for public viewing from 2 to 6 p. m. Saturday along with recent additions at Waveland Center and Valena C. Jones School for Negroes.

Average daily attendance has gone up in comparison with last year, requiring an addition to two more teachers to the system for a total faculty of 60 in both white and Negro schools, McCullough said.

He anticipates 375 pupils in the ninth through 12th grades with a graduation class of 75 to 80 compared with 40 to 45 in previous years. In addition, enrollment at S. J. Ingram Elementary School is expected to be about 200 with 125 at Waveland and 475 at Jones.

All schools in the system will open Friday, Aug. 26, for registration at 9 a. m., and classes will start the following Monday. Faculty meetings will proceed that with elementary teachers convening for instruction at Bay High at 9 a. m., Aug. 24, the high school roster at 9 a. m., Aug. 25 and a general meeting of all white personnel at 2 p. m., Aug. 25. Negro teachers will meet at 11 a. m., Aug. 25 at Jones.

The superintendent noted that the State Department of Education does not furnish any local funds to transport students living within a municipality to schools inside it, state aid being provided along on a per student basis to those living outside the corporate limits.

An extensive summer maintenance program is nearing completion. Pupils at Waveland Center in grades one through four will find a new cafeteria, freshly painted interior, floors reworked and improved playground equipment. Floors and windows have been thoroughly cleaned and waxed at Ingram and Bay High gym walls have been repainted and repaired. The playground area is being prepared at North Bay.

The homecoming department at Jones has been filed and finished.

Only bids for printing of the Student Prints, Bay High school paper, was made by the Sea Coast Echo which was accepted.

Three bids were received for janitorial supplies but so many technical items were listed McCullough was instructed to analyze them for action later. Bidders were Marion Supply Co., Columbia; Zackery Supply Co., New Orleans, La., and Dixie Chemical Co., Birmingham, Ala.

Warrants were approved to the Hub Refrigeration Co. of Hattiesburg for $9,882 and the architectural firm of Kuykendall and Proffier for $537 representing final payments on the building program.

Trustees spent about 15 minutes in an off-the-record discussion.

Demo Delegates to Back Independents

Hancock County's delegation to the reconvened Democratic state convention which meets Tuesday in Jackson will be instructed to vote for two states of electors, one pledged.

The county Democratic executive committee, in a special session called by Chairman Joseph V. Colson, this morning, agreed that it was not satisfied with either party's platform on states rights and integration. Motion was by C. E. Martin of Logtown seconded by C. R. Knowlton of Leetown. Vote was unanimous.

It was pointed out that if ten states had pledged electors they would have a strong bargaining power. Secretary Leo Seal Jr., explained that the November presidential election is expected by both parties to be close and that with an unpledged set of electors Mississippi could bargain with each presidential nominee and vote for whichever party changed its platform most to conform with Mississippi principles or could vote for anybody else.

The action of the committee was in line with Gov. Ross Barnett's plan outlined in a television talk Tuesday night when he said "A vote for either major political party in the presidential election would be regarded as a betrayal."

Miss. Power Cut in Rates Is Approved

A. J. Watson Jr., president of Mississippi Power Co., announced today that revisions of the company's rate schedules have been approved by the Public Service Commission to become effective Sept. 1. These revisions, all of which are reductions, will result in savings of approximately $300,000 to the company's customers in 1961.

The company is also modifying its rate for residential service by the elimination of a charge formerly made to customers with large space heating and large motor loads.

"Although fuel prices have continued upward, increased efficiencies obtained from the installation of larger generating units and other facilities plus use of the most recent technological advances in the fields of production, transmission and distribution, make possible a downward revision in the company's fuel adjustment clause with the resultant savings being passed on to all customers of the company," Watson said.

Quintini Child Hit

David Quintini, 5, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Quintini Jr., 300 Toulon St., Bay St. Louis, was injured yesterday about 10 a. m., when he reportedly ran into the street in front of his home from behind a parked truck into the path of a passing car.

He was treated by Dr. A. K. Martinovich Jr., and allowed to go home.

by national politicians as proof positive that a majority of Mississippians are ready for integration or at least that we wouldn't give them much opposition."

The county's delegation was selected at a previous meeting and is composed of Dan M. Russell Jr., Joseph V. Colson, A. C. Mitchell, John A. Egloff, all county-wide officials including the board of supervisors, and Bay St. Louis and Waveland officials.

Hospital Board Backs Proposals of Auxiliary

Trustees of Hancock General Hospital, meeting Tuesday night, tabled action on boiler room insurance, directed bids on supplies for the coming year and other items and gave its stamp of approval to several recent projects of the woman's auxiliary.

Boiler room insurance had been recommended by the state hospital commission and Administrator Thomas O. Logue reported bids of $1,460 from Trest Insurance Agency, $2,038 from Hancock and $1,953 from Merchants. Board chairman T. T. Rebol Jr. and Secretary Norton Haas wondered about its need and directed a check with other hospitals in the area.

A check of other hospitals also was directed in the case of the power bill for July which ran to about $1,080 with 58,000 kilowatt hours. Trustees were inclined to attribute it to the power plant in the boiler room.

Bids will be sought at the September meeting on general supplies, instruments considered vitally needed by nurses and the medical staff and a sound projector and screen. Next month is the annual meeting with election of officers and adoption of the budget.

The administrator reported on the auxiliary's plan to provide picture postcards of the hospital for patients' rooms, purchase of a fracture frame, television rental plan and formation of a Negro auxiliary to assist those patients.

Logue said he expected to have concrete recommendations ready next month on needs of

Supervisors Hit Prisoner Release

The board of supervisors instructed Clerk Claiborne Ladner to write Gov. Ross Barnett protesting the release of two prisoners from Parchman who had been tried and convicted in Hancock County, one for murder and the other for manslaughter, at a recessed meeting Tuesday.

The prisoners were named but the board apparently referred to Dale Morris and Leonard Fredricks, Negro, who were on leave recently. A press dispatch said Tuesday that Barnett had issued an order stating that convicts at the state penitentiary will be given a three-day leave only in case of death or serious illness in the prisoner's immediate family.

Mrs. Guy T. Buffin Jr., of Buffin Radio and Television Service, asked the board for a reduction in assessment of juke boxes owned by the company as there were not as many in operation now as when assessed. She said a number of machines owned by her firm had been replaced by those of another company.

Board President R. G. Hubbard Jr. asked Tax Assessor George E. Heitzmann if the juke boxes that had replaced the ones owned by Buffin were assessed and Heitzmann replied he was unable to discover who the owner was. Sheriff Gerald V. Price Jr., said he would find the name of the owner but Hubbard said he thought that was in the jurisdiction of the assessor and Heitzmann was instructed to check again and assess the machines to the owner.

Gulf Gardens Water System Purchase Voted

Gulf Gardens' water system was purchased by Waveland at the meeting Thursday night of the Mayor and Board of Aldermen. Final details were ironed out between Tuesday night's meeting and Thursday's and by unanimous vote the board approved the purchase at the price of $499, borrowing the amount from the gas and water deposit fund to be repaid by the town within six months.

In other action at the recessed meeting the board unanimously raised the salary of the manager of the gas and water system $50, from $150 to $200 a month. A few weeks ago the

Mrs. Buffin was asked how many machines her company had in operation and she replied she did not know exactly but that there was a list in the company files. Hubbard suggested she give a copy to Heitzmann and the assessment would be adjusted accordingly. She also pointed out that the machines were purchased new and dropped in value quickly.

A fire alarm system was demonstrated by J. J. Joyce, local distributor, who said it would automatically detect a fire of any type within a minute. He pointed out that the vault where the records are kept is locked Saturday afternoon until Monday and should a lighted cigarette roll under the files a smoldering fire could destroy courthouse records before being discovered Monday. Cost of the equipment would be about $1,080, he said, with maintenance $15 per unit every three years to replace batteries. Supervisors agreed the alarm was needed but funds would not be available until October and Joyce was asked to return then.

It was pointed out that the county school board was selling old schools no longer needed since the opening of Hancock North Central, presenting problem for voting places. Hubbard said the law requires voting not be on private property but supervisors are banned from building a voting place. He suggested it might be wise for the county to keep the buildings. Reopening this morning, the Supervisors met with Fred M. (Cont. on Page 4.)

Communities Elect Committees for ASC

They are, from Bay St. Louis-Lakeshore community, Leo M. Orr, chairman; Norman Benigno, Ed Green, Louis Moreau and Harry Lynch; Leetown-Catahoula, Tony Cuevas, chairman; Scott Rustis, Orease Ladner, David Baker, Forrest Lee, Dedeaux-Sellers, Joseph A. The second and third members of each committee serve as vice chairman and regular member respectively, the other two acting as alternates.

All chairmen will meet Aug. 23 at the ASC office in Bay St. Louis, for the County ASC Convention when they will nominate and elect among them a county committee of five members, for the next 12 months. Election to the county committee makes one eligible to serve on the community committee.

Boy Breaks Back In Dive from Pier

John Eckler, 16, of New Orleans was taken to Foundation Hospital by N. A. Perdicario's Ambulance Saturday afternoon. Young Eckler suffered a broken back as the result of a dive from the Waveland Municipal pier into shallow water about 2:15 p. m.

His parents own a summer home on the Jordan River in Bayou Phillip Estates.

PARISH SCHOOL EQUIPMENT - Jake Morreale, building superintendent for construction of the new Our Lady of the Gulf Parish school, left, demonstrates operation of the public address system to the Rev. Msgr. Martin Moloney and Sisters Mary Sydney and Mary Alfred, C. S. J., who will be at the facility when the plant opens next month.

Kill Man Held On Charges of Shooting Cars

A Kill man resident, about 40, was lodged Monday in Hancock County Jail awaiting examination by a physician following his arrest Sunday evening by Beat 4 Constable Jervis Moran on charges of shooting at automobiles passing his home.

According to Sheriff Gerald V. Price Jr., the man said he had children and was forced to shoot at the passing vehicles to keep them from passing his children's safety. The .22 calibre rifle the man allegedly used was seized by his wife and subsequently recovered by the sheriff's department.

10 Days, $100 Given Driver

Vernon Sanderson, Picasune, alleged to have been responsible for a three-car collision July 14 at the junction of U. S. 90 and Rt. 43, pleaded guilty to three charges and was sentenced to ten days in jail and fined $100 at a hearing Saturday before Beat 1 Justice of the Peace Lester Hoyer.

Highway Patrolman William Kenny, who investigated, said Sanderson was charged with driving while under the influence, no driver's license and improper use. Kenny said Sanderson drove his 1950 Buick into the rear of a 1950 Ford station wagon driven by Ed. Carrere, Waveland, as it moved in the intersection, knocking it into the path of a 1959 traveling west on U. S. 90.

City School Board Awards Supply Bids

Bids for bread, milk, janitorial supplies and other necessary items for the coming school year were accepted at the August meeting of trustees of the Municipal Separate School District Monday night.

Final payment of $20,901.31 to Brice Building Co. also was approved. Total cost of the building project was $202,706.13, not including furnishings, and takes in the new $165,000 North Bay Elementary School, the Valena C. Jones addition and Waveland lunchroom.

Contracts for four bus drivers were approved. They are Clarence Hargett, William Sharp, Robert Magee and Raymond Talbot. Bus drivers receive $85 per month and must attend a safety school for five days every two years.

Three bids were received for milk, all at 6 1/4 cents per carton, from Brown's Velvet, Borden's and Newman-Cobb. Superintendent J. D. McCullough said that last year Newman-Cobb did not bid and milk purchases were divided equally between Brown's Velvet and Borden's and that the two companies aided the schools by supplying cold storage space for butter, turkeys and other perishable items adding that the Newman-Cobb representative had also promised to cooperate. Trustees voted to divide the business three ways, provided all were able to furnish storage. About 600 cartons of milk were sold daily in the school system last year, McCullough said.

Waveland Mayor Elected CMA Proxy

Garfield Ladner, Mayor of Waveland for the last 18 years, was elected president of the Coast Municipal Association Monday night at its meeting in Ocean Springs. Installation ceremony will be Sept. 12 in Waveland. He succeeds Mayor R. B. Meadows Jr. of Gulfport.

At Stormy Blood Bank Meeting Vote By-Law Revision

Blood donors were given an incentive to continue donations of blood as a result of amendments to by-laws adopted last night by the Hancock County Blood Bank.

The amendments were basically ideas of Dr. R. L. McKinley Jr., chairman of the blood bank.

With the change, any donor of one unit of blood, a pint, or any member of his immediate family will be entitled for the succeeding six months to an unlimited quantity of blood without charge. Donors of eight units (one gallon) will be authorized the same privilege for an indefinite period, and for each additional unit given may designate another person to have the privilege for six months.

Actual voting was accomplished after two hours of discussion and discussion, with seven of eight proposed amendments being passed.

Representatives of the American Legion, an organization in large part responsible for the institution of the Hancock County Blood Bank, were as a group not in favor of the amendments.

Particular disagreement arose concerning an amendment which stated: Anyone who receives blood and has not replaced blood as set forth above shall be required to replace two units of blood at the following drawing for each unit of blood received. If not replaced in accordance with the above, the recipient shall be charged and billed by this bank at the rate of $15 per unit of blood received. If not paid within six months of charge date, the person or persons will not be entitled to any blood from this bank until either paid at the rate of $15 per unit or replaced two units for one.

Dr. McKinley attempted to amend this amendment making an exception in the case of persons unable to donate because of age or physical infirmity, but a vote on the change was postponed until the next meeting after George Heitzmann reminded the group they were there to vote on the amendments as they stood. "Most of us are voting for our organizations which instructed us to vote on these the way they are."

Some dispute arose early in the evening when John Rutherford Jr., appointed to take charge of the card file, expressed his desire to "straighten out the file and compile a more accurate list of donors." Someone inquired if there might not be a better way of notifying past donors and recipients at the time of the next

Whose Children?

Tentative figures indicate that the Bay St. Louis Separate Municipal School District will have about 300 more students this year than it had during the 1959-60 sessions. The anticipated increase makes allowance for the almost 500 expected to enroll at our new Our Lady of Gulf elementary school.

The Echo has no knowledge on the source of this large increase in students. It may merely be that six to ten years ago the married couples in Hancock County were unusually fertile. It may be that integration threats in Louisiana play a part.

It is with the latter possibility that this paper is concerned. The census recently completed by Uncle Sam in Waveland indicates that many persons claimed Louisiana and not Mississippi as their home even though they slept ten nights in Waveland to every one they spent in Louisiana.

The high number of Louisiana automobile license plates seen in the Bay-Waveland area in non-vacation periods is also indicative of the possibility that Mississippi and Hancock County are being defrauded of tax monies properly payable to them.

The Echo suggests that the parents of all students enrolling at Hancock County public schools, county and separate district, be required to present a statement from their parents stating that the parents are residents of, and tax-payers to, the State of Mississippi. The office of sheriff and tax collector can take care of the rest.

We Disagree

As a chain of newspapers Scripps-Howard (E. W. Scripps Co., New York World-Telegram Corp., et. al.) has a particularly high reputation. Its 19 newspapers, all in large cities, are generally considered by newspaper personnel to be above average.

In an advertisement in the Aug. 6 issue of Editor and Publisher the Scripps-Howard publications pointed, inadvertently we're sure, to the weakness of chain operations of newspapers. The advertisement states that on "local issues" editors call their own shots, but explains that on national issues, referring specifically to the upcoming presidential contest, editors from all papers get together and decided what view the 19 papers will take. In the terms of the ad this is called "democratic."

The Echo regrets that newspapers of such influence "admit" they are dishonest in their editorials, for that is what the advertisement says. It says that the editor of one paper will write an editorial dealing with who should be our next president even when he thinks another candidate is the better man. The ad calls the chain's system "democratic" but mistakenly leaves out a fundamental of democracy - the right of a minority to be heard - since in their organization if the vote is 12 to 7 (or 10 to 9 or 18 to 1) the seven are never heard by the public. Contrary to our large sized colleagues' advertisement, this is not democracy, it is autocracy (dictatorship).

Let our readers be misled, the opinions expressed on the editorial page of the Echo are the opinions of the person who wrote the editorial, the editor.

Sign With Sheriff

Boats Over 10 H.P.

Under a new law, all boats of more than 10 horsepower must be registered in the office of the sheriff and tax collector, Sheriff Gerald V. Price sr., announced. The Coast Guard registration number will be removed from the bow of the boats and replaced with the registration number issued by the state. Boats will be registered in the state of Mississippi.

Man Released After Arrest for Selling

A New Orleans man was arrested Wednesday and held for investigation after he was reported to have attempted to sell two shotguns. Sheriff Gerald V. Price said today.

Charlie Wells, about 37, was booked on a simple drunk charge and released after Price verified his statement that the guns were his. Arresting officers were Sheriff Price and Deputy Donald Marquet.

A complete staff of cafeteria workers is not yet complete, but many of the cooks and kitchen workers from St. Joseph will take over the jobs at the new school.

Information concerning fees and other details may be obtained next week during the registration period.

McCulloch noted efforts of the system's trustees and city administration in helping to develop a building program adequate to meeting the needs of the city and increased teachers' pay to secure the best possible faculty. Widespread support of the program was indicated in passage of the bond issue enabling the recently finishing program to proceed, he added.

Blood Bank

(Cont. from Page 1.) drawing. Rutherford replied that donors and recipients were notified by mail, telephone and otherwise and he didn't see how more could be done.

Concerning the walk-in blood bank, a means is being sought by which the walk-in donor will still be entitled to blood if he or any member of his family needs it. Under one of the amendments passed last night a six month card will be issued to only those who have given a pint of blood. This would, in many cases, exclude the walk-in donor who is always on call, but may not be called for several months.

An additional amendment involving membership in the Blood Bank was discarded by the chair when a discussion arose as to how many representatives each organization should be allowed. Powell Glass Jr., proposed to the effect that each organization be allowed one vote, with one additional vote for each 100 members of the organization and that all donors registered at the last blood drawing would be eligible to cast one vote at a meeting of the HCB. This amendment and the clause to amendment four will be considered and voted on at the next regular meeting of the HCB.

The next blood drawing will be Wednesday, Oct. 12, at the Bay Saint Center. Dr. McKinley stated that in the future, the blood bank will hold three drawings a year in order to accommodate all possible donors, and that a day other than Wednesday will be scheduled for one of the drawings. Such an arrangement is believed to be more convenient for most employed persons.

Mrs. Maurice Martin, secretary of the organization, resigned because she felt she could not devote sufficient time to properly fulfill the duties of the office.

Dear Mr. & Mrs. . . . We know that the youngsters in your family are going to hate to be reminded of this fact—but "school days" are just around the corner.

Our drug store has many back-to-school needs, ranging from school supplies and stationery to travel kits for those young people who will be leaving home to continue their education.

Stop in and take a leisurely look around our back-to-school department. Avoid the last-minute September rush.

We're looking forward to being of service to you and members of your family this fall.

Very cordially yours,

The mobile chest x-ray unit operated for only one of the scheduled four hours in the county last Thursday. The county department conducted x-rays in the morning at the Church of Annunciation, Kluh, where it was discovered that the vehicular portion of the unit was in need of repairs.

The county adopted this retirement system in 1953, but it has not been enforced and workers who have been employed since then must either reach back and pick up their retirement since 1953, or sign a release, disconnecting themselves from the retirement system completely.

However, those workers who were employed before the adoption of this retirement system, and worked through 1953, may draw all their back retirement pay, the amount of which depends on actual years of service and monthly salary. Additional information and literature will be made available to the board shortly and enable it to present the situation to the county work- ers.

Cook your Meals!

Cleaning new built-in gas ranges make cooking fun! Automatic controls and the "turner-with-a-burner" bring out the "home economist" in you... help you to serve more delicious meals in half the time, with half the work, thanks to natural gas.

But there's nothing simple about getting gas to your home. Consider the risk of drilling thousands of feet deep in the hope of finding a gas-bearing sand. Some wells cost more than $1,000,000 to drill, with no assurance of success. When gas is found there is still the job of "cleaning" it, making it suitable for use. A huge, enormously costly pipeline system is required to transport gas to places where it's needed. Finally, a maze of mains and service lines bring it to your home and business. No doubt about it... natural gas is still the biggest bargain in your family budget.

BEAUTY TIPS by Mercedes Spahn

HAIR SHAPING IS AN ART.

We know cutting and shaping is a true art. It's such an important part of our profession, we go back to special classes year after year, so that we can apply the most modern methods to your own tresses. Maybe you've never thought of it this way, but every permanent wave, every flattering new hair style you see in the last issue of the hair shaping which precedes it.

TAKE A LOOK AT THE TERN-AGER

Observe some of the pre-teen girls you know — those who wear their locks in a stiff, floppy, seldom-trimmed mass. You'll note that "stiffness" in the hair sides seldom holds definite waves. Even with pins, ribbons and barrettes, all hair finds it hard to keep an orderly appearance. This is because this young hair hasn't been "shaped" — skillfully tapered and blended, so that waves will fall exactly where they are wanted. Those whose faces are, not so young, whose figures are not so slight, can't afford that unkempt look of the tern!

WE'LL COAX CAREFUL LINES INTO BEING

So gently (to the observer) that even if you wish a rather casual look, you can depend on the waves to fall into place that way. We'll do it first with the kind of permanent wave that might have been formulated just for you. . . so right in every drop of lotion for your hair condition, and the ultimate amount of curl you wish your "public" to see.

Long Hair — with care. Yes, of course if you simply prefer long hair or longer than most you may wear it that way. But one of the most surprising facts is this, you may require more frequent shaping and trimming than your short-haired sister! Most certainly, if you are past 25, your long hair must have professional care. Only the hairdresser skilled in the art of the scissors and the shaper can give you the graceful contours that will make your hair easy to manage between salon visits! Speaking of salon visits — isn't it time we discussed you in person? Come in soon!

Mind And Money

Menander, a Greek who lived in the third century (B.C.), said among many other wise things: "Blessed is the man who has both mind and money, for he employs the latter well."

It is something of the same idea expressed later in the words, "A fool and his money soon part."

Many unkind things have been said about money; it has even been called "the root of all evil." But the almighty dollar is still an object of universal pursuit and devotion throughout the land and over most of the world. And though there are some things money cannot buy, for the things it will buy it comes in mighty handy.

Many men know how to make money but few know how to keep it. Men have many talents they employ to make it, but the most successful are those who are money-minded - they have what the Greek called the mind to employ money.

And often the ingenuity of man reaches its peak in the invention of schemes to separate others from their money. Frauds and gyps prey upon the people to the tune of millions - health gyps, fake bargains, easy money and what-not.

Better business bureaus chambers of commerce, newspapers, bankers, public officials and law enforcement agencies across the country alert the public constantly to be on the watch for the fast-talking artists who promise to cure all our ills and put us on the primrose path to easy riches. The National Better Business Bureau of one city has recorded over 800 schemes of varying degrees of dishonesty being used to bamboozle the gullible.

So as Menander, the Greek, so well put it, "Blessed is the man who has both mind and money."

Your money in our bank won't make you rich overnight, but it will yield a modest return in the form of regular interest, and it will be there when you want to use it for some legitimate investment that will add to your peace of mind and good fortune.

SEA Comes from Behind Shoulda Gone Fishin'

BY EDDIE ENGELHORN

When the baseball game between the Sea Coast Echo and the Youth Center was over, the crowd at City Ball Park was still in the first inning. The Sea Coast Echo, playing the first of the "B" league playoffs, went down in the first inning, 1-0, in the opener.

The Youth Center, fighting back from behind, came from behind to beat the Sea Coast Echo, 11-10, in the last inning.

The Sea Coast Echo's win was only a temporary reprieve in the playoffs. They gave them sole possession of second place in the league standings.

The score tied 10 all in the last half of the last inning. Strong grounded to second on an error, Pitcher Cecil Caldwell singled through second, baseman John came through with a lead Strong headed for home and missed the play, sliding to the backstop on his stomach. While the crowd roared he crawled to his feet and dove for home plate to score the winning run. It looked like a football scrimmage as his teammates, yelling gleefully, piled on top of him.

Coast Electric appeared on the way to victory racking up four big runs in the top of the first but Youth Center went ahead in the third scoring six and three more in the fourth. In the sixth Coast Electric got three and Youth Center one putting YC ahead 9-7.

In the top of the seventh for Coast Electric J. Favre singled to center; Cecil Caldwell singled over third advancing Favre to second. U. Ladner forced Cecil Ladner and Favre scored on a long fly by C. Dedaux that looked like a homer but was snagged at the run by Ronnie Peterson.

Score 10-8. Next man up, W. J. Cameron, gave the ball a ride over the leftfielder's head for a homer chasing U. Ladner in a head of him and tying the score 10-10.

Coast Electric was not through yet and got two more on base. Pitcher Caldwell's strategy proved good when he loaded the bases by walking J. T. Ladner who had already hit him for two homers. Bill Warrs slammed a hard line drive taken by the leftfielder to end the top of the seventh.

In the opening game Regal gave the spectators a thrill when they opened up with a three-run lead but Trampant scored two in the second and four in the third. Things started popping again in the top of the fourth when Regal went ahead scoring four runs but Trampant ended the scoring with two in the bottom half.

Reports of good fishing, both salt water and fresh, keep coming in despite heavy downpours although the water in the rivers are a little muddy from the rain. The hot weather has driven many salt water anglers back among the "tall timber" where fishing is cooler and more comfortable in shaded bayous.

Quite a few mackerel are being caught in the Bay and although it is probably too early to tell, indications point to another big season. Last year was one of the best in recent times. The annual run should start soon. Split "sardines" caught in cast nets off the bridges are the traditional bait here although spoons and other shallow-running lures have proven successful at times.

Bull croakers are reported biting down Lakeshore way and we intend to check on that personally soon. Seems a little early for them but they can provide a lot of sport for bait fishermen.

Shrimp are plentiful off the seawall, both for eating and for bait, as are speckled trout. A few casts of a net around day-break should provide enough shrimp to catch a mess of trout, especially in Waveland around Coleman Avenue.

Donald, Bert and A. J. Stiefel boated 62 specks, 5 flounder, 4 reds and a bushel of croakers Sunday morning out front on an undisclosed reef in the vicinity of Pole Cat Bend, Bert said. Your're one too, Bert, if the Pole Cat Bend location turns out to be fictitious.

Parnell McKay, publisher of the Tarpon-Beacon in Pass Christian, came up with a 2-pound 10-ounce flounder to take third place in the division in the first week of the Pass Christian fishing rodeo which began July 30 and will continue through Sept. 4. The fish wound up on the table of his contemporaries, Mr. and Mrs. Boss. The tournament is sponsored annually by the Pass Christian Outboard Fishermen's Club and some fine prizes will be awarded. Registration may be made at the Pass Yacht Club. So far, a 75-pound tarpon and 139-pound shark, are the biggest catches although a 6-pound, 5-ounce green trout has been weighed in.

Young Norman Levenson, a summer visitor on Beach Boulevard, Waveland, got quite a catch over the weekend ranging from

CATCH 'EM COWBOY - Spectators at the first professional rodeo ever staged in Hancock County will have an opportunity to see steer wrestling like this when the Kinney Brothers of Sulphur, La., put on their show Aug. 19-21 at the Lazy Y Arena, Nicholson Avenue and Kiln Road. Approved by the Rodeo Cowboys Association, it is expected to draw more than 100 cowboys from all over the country.

Capt. Billy Kidd and Clay Baxter finally decided to go crabbing Wednesday just as the first bolt of a thunderstorm struck so they decided to stay home and drink their bait. Clay said he was going to cut the grass Monday but couldn't because of the mosquitoes which has Mrs. Clay wondering if he hasn't been waiting for the little pests for an excuse.

Max Gianelloni had the baseball concession at St. Clare's fair Sunday. Remembering how we clipped him at the Our Lady of the Gulf fair, he warily handed us three balls. We stretched our trusty pitching arm and promptly won two cigars but got banned from further competition on the grounds of being a pro. We are looking forward to that fishing trip, Max.

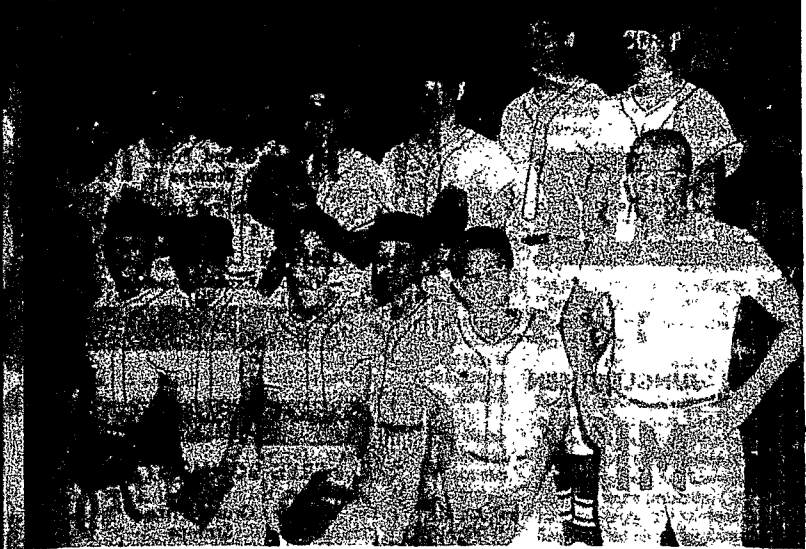

Jim Giametta and Johnny Kramer found an out-of-the-way spot that paid off Sunday afternoon. They went up Joe's Bayou off the Jordan and caught the limit of green trout. Jim was using a Devil's Horse.

State Game Warden Randolph Bourgeois who is recovering from two heart attacks asks that we announce he has fishing and hunting licenses on sale at 447 Ballentine and will appreciate sportsmen coming to see him.
